

Simply Grand

Grand Entertainment

You'll find concerts, theatre, music, sporting events, art, parks, gaming and remarkable facilities like the $100 million Ralph Engelstad Arena and the state-of-the-art Alerus Center.

Or just enjoy a relaxing getaway, with easy access to shopping, dining, city parks and golf courses.

A Farmers Market featuring fresh garden produce, baked goods, home-canned and prepared foods, fresh-cut flowers and handcrafted items, is open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Saturday during June, July, August and September in Town Square.

A taste of things to come...

- Twelve-screen cinema complex featuring stadium seating in the East Grand Forks Riverwalk Center to open in summer 2007.
- Splasher's indoor pool and wet and wild waterslide complex, North Dakota's largest enclosed water park and wellness center, located in the Canad Inn Destination Center attached to the Alerus Center.
- 2008 Men's World Curling Championship (April 5-13, 2008): the 12-team round-robin event will be held at the Ralph Engelstad Arena in Grand Forks and will include teams from around the world competing for curling's most coveted prize.
